Our Storywalk® is located in the Library’s Centennial Park. The opening to the park can be found on the far side of the parking lot. Centennial Park is a mixture of level and un-level surfaces, there is a hill and the path is narrow, but strollers are welcome. This is a free program. We suggest calling ahead (401-767-2780) if you are uncertain about the weather. <http://www.nspl.info> Proof of visit: Stop inside the library and let the librarian know you need the Great Outdoors Passport Stamp.
- StoryWalk at Claire D. McIntosh Wildlife Refuge: 1401 Hope Street, Bristol, RI 02809. The Rogers Free Library, in conjunction with the Audubon Society of Rhode Island present a StoryWalk® to be held at the Claire D. McIntosh Wildlife Refuge in Bristol, RI from June 29 - July 14. What is a StoryWalk®? Laminated pages from a children's book are attached to stakes, which are installed along an outdoor path. As you stroll down the trail, you're directed to the next page in the story. The StoryWalk® Project was created by Anne Ferguson of Montpelier, VT and developed in collaboration with the Kellogg-Hubbard Library. The Friends of the Rogers Free Library has provided grant funding for this project. This StoryWalk® features the book Underground by Denise Fleming. With bold illustrations and brief text, this story is ideal for toddlers and pre-schoolers but can be enjoyed by all ages and is a great read-aloud for a summer day! Join us on opening day, Saturday June 29, from 1 to 3 pm for a scavenger hunt and craft table. Proof of visit: See staff to get your sticker.
