

Pursuit #2 – Fort Adams State Park
 Sunday, June 23, 2013

List of ACTIVITIES<sup>1</sup>

All 11-3 p.m. unless otherwise noted below

|  |   |
|--|---|
| 11 am – 1 pm                                     | Team Check-In (11-1) Each registered team member under 18 will receive an activity card for the event. Completed activity cards may be turned in for a strip of raffle tickets for the 3 p.m. raffle. NO ACTIVITY CARDS WILL BE ISSUED AFTER 1 P.M.   |
| On the hour starting 11 am or do on your own     | Fort Adams Tours – Two options:1) Guided historical walks and talks through the Fort with the Fort Adams Trust . The Trust will provide tours at the discounted rate of $6 for adults and $3 for kids or at the family rate of $15 for 2 adults and up to 4 kids for registered families. The guided tour includes access to the interior tunnels located in the Fort.2) Self-guided walk through the interior of the Fort. The self-guided tour is free and consists of a walk through the interior of the Fort with self-guided signs but does not include access to the interior tunnels. |
| Show at 1 pmPlayshops: 1:30 pm & 2 pm        | World Class Frisbee Show and Playshop -- by two-time World Freestyle Frisbee Champion Todd Brodeur   |
|  | Explore with the Research Vessel and Sea Creature Touch Tank —US Environmental Protection Agency   |
|  | Stop by the Verizon booth for face painting and to learn what the power of FiOS can do for you. FiOS a Network Ahead  |
|  | Tide Pool and Fish Painting with DEM's Division of Fish and Wildlife   |
|  | Healthy Kids Cooking Demonstration –sponsored by the DEM Division of Agriculture   |
|  | Books for sale on nature, animals, health and fitness by Usborne Books &amp; More  |
|  | Sample Rhode Island-produced cheese and milk with Rhody Fresh  |
| 12 pm and 2 pm                                   | Lawn Games with the DEM interns; all ages welcome  |
|  | Crafts with the DEM Naturalist – DEM Parks & Recreation  |
| On the hour with the DEM guide or do on your own | Guided or self-guided walk along the Fort Adams Bay Walk : Approx. 2.2 miles along the beautiful view and exploring one of Newport's last hidden treasures. Lighthouses, mansions, bays and ships will be in full sight. Average terrain and is good for kids of all ages and for strollers.   |
| 1 pm to 2 pm                                     | Appearances by Paws , the Pawtucket Red Sox mascot  |
|  | Kitt Kites - An array of large, medium, and small kites for families and children to fly using seaside winds. Kites will be available for sale.  |
|  | Recycle your old computers, TVs, cell phones and other electronics at our FREE Electronics Recycling Drop Off – Indie Cycle, in parking lot entrance   |
|  | Learn about recycling and composting with MaxMan the R.I. Resource Recovery Corp. superhero.  |
|  | Learn more about how RIPTA transit and promotions benefit you and your family  |
| 3 pm   | Raffles – MUST BE A REGISTERED PARTICIPANT AND PRESENT TO WIN!  |

Please bring walking shoes, sunscreen, a picnic lunch and lawn chairs or blankets to enjoy the beautiful view of Newport Harbor.

<sup>1</sup> Current as of June 17, 2013. Subject to change.