2014 Pilotage Fees and Expenditures

The State's share of pilotage fees collected by the Pilots from registered vessels in accordance with Commission regulations for 2014 was $245,434.93. A detailed listing of all vessels piloted and the individual fees paid is available from the Commission. Fees collected from Rhode Island Licensed Pilots are deposited into the State's general revenue account. Funding for the operation of the Pilotage Commission is charged to the Department of Environmental Management and is administered by the Division of Coastal Resources. Legal and clerical support is provided on a non-reimbursable basis by the Department of Environmental Management, Division of Law Enforcement and the Office of Legal Services.

2014 expenditures were less than $1,000. Also, it should be noted that public members of the Commission have waived all compensation.
