 Rhode Island Division of Fish and Wildlife along with the Federated Rhode Island Sportsmen’s Club will be hosting an Intro to Waterfowl hunting and Waterfowl ID class. Participants will learn the basics of what it takes to hunt various species of waterfowl. Focusing on equipment, blind preparation, concealment and much more. Waterfowl identification is one of the most important skills needed to be an ethical and legal waterfowl hunter, so come join us for a super informational course!

WHEN:
Wednesday, September 30.  6pm-9pm

WHERE:
Fish and Wildlife Education Office.
1B Camp E Hun Tee Place
Exeter RI 02822

TO REGISTER:
Please contact Madison.proulx@dem.ri.gov  (401)539-0019

*Please note due to COVID19 restrictions sitting is limited. Participants must wear a face covering during duration of the course and practice social distancing