The training session will cover the following topics:
- Proper gear & clothing
- Rules & regulations
- Firearm safety in the field
- Waterfowl equipment
- Waterfowl identification
- Hunting with dogs
- Clay target shooting - We will provide safety gear and 12 & 20 gauge ammunition. You may bring your own shotgun or borrow one of ours.

*Please note that due to COVID19 all participants must be wearing a face covering during time of training and practice social distancing of 6ft.
Mentored Youth Waterfowl Hunt

License and HIP Permit Required

Saturday, October 24, 2020

Youth hunters and a guardian will join a Ducks Unlimited volunteer on a mentored duck or goose hunt! More details and a pre-hunt checklist will be provided at the training day.

Please note there is a limit on the number of participants for the hunt. Participation will be determined in the order that registrations are received. Once all spots are full (~10 - 15), interested participants will be put on a waitlist.

In order to participate in the hunt, youth hunters must have participated in the training event on September 29th.

Pre-registration is required for both the training and the mentored hunt. For additional information and to register, please call the Hunter Education Office (401)539-0019 or email Madison.proulx@dem.ri.gov

Those youths not wishing to participate in the mentored hunt may hunt on Youth Waterfowl Days (October 24 and 25) in accordance with state regulations.
