2006 Rhode Island Duck Stamp

Canvasback Decoys with Castle Hill Lighthouse

The Rhode Island Division of Fish and Wildlife 2006 waterfowl stamp continues the lighthouse series. Lighthouses that were featured in previous stamps include the Dutch Island Light, Point Judith Light, the Conimicut Light, the Rose Island Light and the Sakonnet Light. All of the lighthouse stamp series are the work of Keith Mueller, a renowned artist and waterfowl decoy carver. Proceeds from stamp sales are deposited in a special account earmarked for the restoration, research, management, and acquisition of waterfowl habitat.

The 2006 stamp depicts two canvasback decoys on the rocks in Newport with the Castle Hill Lighthouse in the background.

The edition: 3,000 mint stamps in sheets of 30; 120 Governor's edition (each stamp is printed with "GOVERNOR" and hand-signed by Governor Donald L. Carcieri); 200 hunters stamps (each stamp is printed with "HUNTER"). These licensing agent hunter books have two panes of 10 for a total of 20 stamps to a book. *90 artist-signed stamps are also available.

Unsold stamps: are destroyed after August 31, annually. Orders postmarked or otherwise received after 8/31 of the stamp year will not be accepted. Visit us at: www.state.ri.us/dem/programs/bnatres/fishwild/duckstamp.htm.
