The Freshwater and Anadromous Fishing Regulations and the Hunting Regulations are required pursuant to RIGL §20-1-13 to remain in effect for no longer than one year following their effective date. As such, the Department is required to promulgate these regulations annually. Regulation changes pertain to calendar date changes, fishing access additions, hunting season and bag limits. RHODE ISLAND PARK AND MANAGEMENT AREA RULES AND REGULATIONS, 2010

Statutory Authority: RIGL Chapter 31.1 SMALL BUSINESS REGULATORY FAIRNESS IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

1.16 All organized fishing activities, i.e. tournaments, must be permitted through the Department on all fresh waters of the state, regardless of access. A minimum of six (6) persons is considered an organized fishing activity requiring a permit. The Department reserves the right to limit the number of tournaments per location. The Department reserves the right to deny a permit application for a particular date and location for reasons of overuse or conflict with other activities. If access is municipal or a private ramp, an additional permit may be required from the municipality or private entity and municipal regulations will supersede those of the state for municipal or private ramp access permitting. It shall be the responsibility of the fishing organization to obtain said additional permit.

No more than one (1) permitted organized fishing activity may be held on a freshwater body during the same time period.

This does not supersede any special boat ramp or state management area state regulations, except as described below:

It will be the sole responsibility of each permitted organized fishing group to have the registrations of all participants available during the activity for enforcement purposes.
