

COMMUNITY FLY TYING PROGRAM

JOIN US FOR FUN, FLY TYING, AND FLY FISHING!

FREE!

The Greenville Public Library and the Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management, Division of Fish and Wildlife, are hosting a FREE fly tying and fly fishing event

Participants will learn to make their own fresh water or freshwater flies over several weeks then have the opportunity to fish using the flies they created at a private fly fishing event in Rhode Island. This course is geared towards novices and experienced fly tiers alike.

FLY TYING DATES:

(Attend one or attend all, we will be making a different fly each class!):

Wednesday: 6/14/2017 6pm-8pm

Wednesday 6/21/2017 6pm-8pm

Wednesday: 6/28/2017 6pm-8pm

FISHING DATE:

7/9/2017 9am-1pm

No experience is necessary, and no fishing license is required to participate in this program. Equipment will be provided or you may bring your own!

Anyone wishing to participate is required to register for the program in advance for planning purposes. Walk in's will not be allowed to participate.

To register: contact Scott Travers at scott.travers@dem.ri.gov or 401-539-0019

