

SMAST Yellowtail Flounder Tagging Program

Have you caught a tagged yellowtail flounder?

If you catch a tagged flounder please record:

Tag Number – Date – Location – Fish Length - Depth

To claim your

REWARD

Please contact us at:

phone: (508)-910-6393

Or by email at: gdecelles@umassd.edu

The School for Marine Science and Technology (SMAST) is conducting a tagging study to identify the movement patterns of yellowtail flounder in Southern New England. The tag data will be used to assess the movements of yellowtail flounder, and improve the stock assessment for this species.