

Students learn how people have altered the water cycle by building hard surfaces like roads and rooftops that don't allow rain water to infiltrate.

Then they take a look at all of the sources of stormwater pollution in a watershed...

Like fertilizers, animal waste, grass clippings, car wash soap and more. Add water and....

The stormwater pollution travels downstream to "Narragansett Bay." What steps can everyone take to prevent our waters from becoming polluted?